LETTER TO THE EDITOR

At approximately 2:00 A.M. on Saturday, August 26th, a dog was killed on Church Street by a hit and run driver. If the driver of this car had been traveling at a reasonable rate of speed, perhaps this accident could have been avoided. The racing of cars along Church Street has been brought to the attention of the local police department on a number of occasions when we have been told that the police "are doing all they can". What ARE they doing? The speeding cars continue to roar along Church Street like "accidents going somewhere to happen". Must we wait for another one before something more positive is done to stop this excessive speeding?

We wonder if bringing this problem directly to the attention of the town parents might help. We do not wish to condemn all young people for the stupid behavior of some because we are well aware that there are young

CANINE ACTRESS FEATURED IN PLAY

Miss Beau Tristesse, canine actress, to be featured in the forthcoming Mattapoisett production, "Champgane Complex", is making her debut in this area. The purebred cocker spaniel was last seen in "Ladies Night in A Turkish Bath" at the Quadic Summer Playhouse in Thompson, Connecticut. The glamorous, blond actress claims that her role is a difficult one inasmuch as she is portraying a male dog by the name of T. S. Eliot. However, a true method actress, Beau has been studying the works of the poet, and the mannerisms peculiar to the males of her breed, and faithfully chewing her script every night.

It is obvious that she has set her teeth into this role, and her performance will be a successful one.

Her mistress and dramatic coach, Miss Jeanne Paiva, has been grooming her for stardom, and says that as long as there are dog biscuits on the set, Beau is sure to give a blue ribbon performance.

"Champagne Complex" is to be presented at the Mattapoisett Town Hall August 31st and September 1st and 2nd starting at 8:30 each night. The play is being sponsored by the Mattapoisett Lions Club who will turn all proceeds over to the Ambulance Fund.

The cast includes Miss Jeanne Paiva, Richard Tirrell and Hartley Gurney. Van Sauter is directing.

The town is situated on the border of Switzerland and has those magnificent mountains for a background. Roberta was taken by her French family for a stay on the Riviera and while there visited Monaco. She also saw something of Italy, Switzerland, Belgium and Holland, and spent a week in Paris on her way to Cluses.

She said that her family in France were wonderful to her, and the experiences she shared with them something she will treasure all of her life. She is hoping that her French "sister", Nicole, may return the visit with a stay at the Turner home in Mattapoisett next year. She sailed from Montreal, Canada on the way to France landing in Holland.

Dear friends,

We are often asked, "What should I pay for a funeral?"

Our advice always is this: "You are the only one who can answer that question. Your tastes and your finances should decide. Don't spend beyond your means. On the other hand, don't deprive yourself of the life-long satisfaction of paying a loving tribute to the one who is gone."

We prefer, always, to leave the selection entirely in your hands.

Respectfully,

Carl C Cornwell
